

The One That I Love (Jesus)

I watch You with the intent to know
What motivates You
What is that inner passion that stirs in You?
Spirit blessed and directed

You look at me with eyes that are full
Of laughter, joy, and longing
But what I notice most is
Your eyes for others

You see, know, and love
Love, for the good
Love for the weak
Love in brokenness
Love in the very heart of God
Your heart which overflows

You overflow me

Let me watch the One I love
Loving that I may love
Seeing with Your eyes
Your compassion flowing through my heart
Speaking words of freedom

United
At home with You.
